

¹⁰ As Pharaoh drew near, the Children of Israel lifted up their eyes:

Here, Egypt marching after them!

They were exceedingly afraid.

And the Children of Israel cried out to YHWH,

¹¹ they said to Moshe:

Is it because there are no graves in Egypt that you have taken us out to die in the wilderness?

What is this that you have done to us, bringing us out of Egypt?

¹² Is this not the very word that we spoke to you in Egypt,

saying: Let us alone, that we may serve Egypt!

Indeed, better for us serving Egypt than our dying in the wilderness!

¹³ Moshe said to the people:

Do not be afraid!

Stand fast and see

YHWH's deliverance which he will work for you today, for as you see Egypt today, you will never see it again for the ages!

¹⁴ YHWH will make war for you, and you—be still!

¹⁵ YHWH said to Moshe:

Why do you cry out to me?

Speak to the Children of Israel, and let them march forward!

¹⁶ And you—

hold your staff high, stretch out your hand over the sea and split it, so that the Children of Israel may come through the midst of the sea upon the dry-land.
